LITIGATION & DISPUTE Resolution

Course Introduction:

The global economic meltdown has reached these shores. This has unfortunately dramatically increased the number of disputes in the region. If the laws and procedures that govern disputes are unclear and unpredictable, it can be quite a complicated situation to deal with.

ICTD's Dispute Resolution in The UAE course will equip you with appropriate solutions to handle corporate disputes. It will provide the right techniques that you would need in your work place and will guide you through a process to understand the full range of legal issues related to disputes. Having mapped the course content directly to the stated course objectives, we are confident that you will leave this course with comprehensive insights and a balanced perspective

Course Objectives:

The program aims to enable participants to achieve the following objectives:

- Develop strategies for resolving disputes without resorting to costly litigation
- Explore the technical details of dispute resolution and advanced negotiation
- Understand the international and regional legal structures for dispute resolution

Who Should Attend?

This course will highly benefit professionals from the real estate, project management, construction, trading, and supply chain and logistics sectors with the responsibility for their organizations' exposure under disputes. While this may include in-house counsel and legal advisors, it also includes senior managers and decision makers responsible for the practical and operational management of contractual relationships and the disputes that may arise from them. It will be useful to those who negotiate contracts, terms and discounts with outside suppliers of goods and services or manage contractor performance
